

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES.

Three Days Meetings Held in the Taylor Congregational Church. Rev. David Jones Re-Elected Moderator—Services in the First Welsh Baptist Church Last Evening—Police and Aldermanic Cases—Death of Mrs. Mary Griffiths—Successful Operation—News Notes and Personals.

The annual meeting of the association of Congregational churches of Eastern Pennsylvania convened in the Congregational church, Taylor, Saturday evening and yesterday, and conferences will be held this morning and afternoon. The officers are: Rev. David Jones, West Scranton, moderator; Rev. William C. Davis, Catawissa, vice-moderator; Rev. J. P. Thomas, Nanticoke, secretary; Rev. Richard George, Wilkes-Barre, treasurer.

On Friday evening, Rev. William C. Davis, of Plains, preached the sermons, and on Saturday morning the opening conference was held. Among the business transactions was the election to membership of David Evans, M. D., of Kingston, and William M. Davis, of Slatington. The afternoon session was devoted principally to the discussion of the conduct of members of the Lawrence Congregational church, and after the case had been thoroughly aired, the association unanimously adopted the following resolution:

That we consider the action of the Lawrence Congregational church, by its members, in publishing scurrilous, untruthful, misleading and false articles in the Scrantonian, a Sunday publication, which reflect unfavorably upon some of our esteemed and influential ministers and deacons as most censurable.

That we condemn this unseemly conduct in unreserved terms and demand of them a clear and positive apology, both to the esteemed brethren insulted, and to the denomination in the association, and that the apology be published in the report of the association as well as in the Scrantonian, and until this is done that we as an association sever connection with the above church.

The conference was attended by delegates from Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Lehigh, Carbon, Schuylkill, Northampton, York and Tioga counties, and it was decided to hold the next annual meeting in Slatington.

Noah Bevan, of Dundaff, delivered an English sermon, in the Welsh Baptist church, Rev. W. C. Davis, of Catawissa, and Rev. P. M. George, of Pittston, spoke in Welsh.

Last evening Rev. Peter Roberts, of Oliphant, preached an English sermon, and Rev. William Jones, of Plymouth, spoke in the Welsh tongue.

Confession meetings will be held at 9 o'clock this morning and at 2 o'clock this afternoon, and the meetings will terminate this evening with a preaching service.

At the Tabernacle Congregational church on South Hyde Park avenue, yesterday Rev. William M. Davis, of Slatington, preached the sermon, and in the morning, and Rev. D. R. Griffiths, of Catawissa, delivered an English sermon in the evening.

Rev. J. P. Thomas, of Nanticoke, occupied the pulpit of the First Welsh Congregational church, 501 Main avenue, yesterday morning, and Rev. W. C. Davis, of Catawissa, preached in the evening.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE.

The Baptist Young People's union of the First Welsh Baptist church conducted the services in that edifice last evening. Luther Lewis presided, and an hour's song service was held at the beginning of the exercises. Hugh Williams was in charge of the singing, and Miss Elizabeth Hughes presided at the organ. Mr. Lewis read the fifteenth chapter of St. John for the Scripture lesson and also offered prayer.

Miss Sarah Meredith read a well-prepared paper on "Christian Opportunity," and Thomas Thurburn followed with a solo. David J. Davis, president of the society, spoke on "The Value of One Crying in the Wilderness," and Henry P. Davies closed the meeting with prayer.

Special prayer meetings will be held in the church every evening during the coming week, and on Wednesday and Friday evenings the members are particularly requested to attend.

Rev. D. D. Hopkins, the new pastor, is expected here on Thursday of this week.

POLICE AND ALDERMANIC.

Constable Joseph Dean, of the Twenty-first ward, arrested James Callahan on Saturday evening on a warrant issued at the instance of Mary Oliver, charging him with assault and battery. The case will be tried before Alderman Jones.

MINOOKA.

The representative South Side team, the would-be amateur champions of both counties, invaded Minooka yesterday and received a severe drubbing by the local nine. The inability of the alleged leaders to make any kind of a showing was both amusing and surprising. The home team outplayed the visitors at all points of the game. Duffy pitched for the locals, and after the opening inning the much-heralded champions were unable to solve his delivery. The end of the ninth inning the score stood 12 to 5 in favor of the home team. The feature of the contest was the base running of Phillips.

All the regular force of the city will be on duty after 12 o'clock noon. They will all wear their full dress uniforms and white gloves. In addition to these twenty-five regular policemen have been sworn in to assist. Some of these will be in uniform and others will set as plain clothes men mingling with the crowd.

Detectives have been and will be stationed at the various railway depots for the purpose of watching the incoming trains and catching out any of the light fingered gentry who may arrive.

Mrs. Pinkham's Medicine Made a New Woman of Mrs. Kuhn.

(LETTER TO MRS. FERRIS NO. 6495) "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I think it is my duty to write to you expressing my sincere gratitude for the wonderful relief I have experienced by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I tried different doctors, also different kinds of medicine. I would feel better at times, then would be as bad as ever. "For eight years I was a great sufferer. I had falling of the womb and was in such misery at my monthly periods I could not get out of bed. I would have to lie down. Your medicine has made a new woman of me. I can now work all day and not get tired. I thank you for what you have done for me. I shall always praise your medicine to all suffering women."—MRS. E. E. KUHN, GERMANO, OHIO.

"I have taken eight bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used two packages of your Sannaive Wash, also some of the Liver Pills, and I can say that your remedies will do all that you claim for them. Before taking your remedies I was very nervous with womb trouble, was nervous, had no ambition, could not sleep, and my food seemed to do me no good. Now I am well, and your medicine has cured me. I will gladly recommend your medicine to every one wherever I go."—MRS. M. L. SHEARS, GUN MARSH, MICH.

SOUTH SCRANTON NEWS.

Fourth Anniversary of the Church of Peace Conducted Yesterday. Funeral of William Gavin.

The fourth anniversary of the Church of Peace on Prospect avenue was fittingly observed yesterday by the congregation. Services were held in the morning and evening. The former service was under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the church.

Rev. E. Schmidt, pastor of the congregation, delivered a special address to the ladies. He reviewed the good work done by the society and urged that it be continued.

The evening services were of a more elaborate order. The church choir gave a splendid programme of special music. Addresses were delivered in German by Rev. Schmidt, Rev. Mr. Webber, of Taylor, Rev. Mr. Bier, of Archbold, and Rev. Mr. Halloran, of St. Paul's church of this side. Delegates accompanied the clergyman above noted.

At the close of the services a general meeting was held of all the congregations from the places mentioned. It was decided by a unanimous vote to combine the young people's societies of the congregations into one to be known as the Scranton People's Society, of Scranton and vicinity. Officers will be elected at a meeting to be held in a few weeks.

The congregation of the Church of Peace is to be warmly congratulated over yesterday's event, and the grand progress it has made during its brief career. Four years ago, August 27, the congregation was formed with twenty-seven members. It has now 100 members, who are active and energetic. The church property is valued at $10,000, and is free from debt.

SHORT NEWS ITEMS.

The funeral of the late William Gavin took place on Saturday afternoon from John H. Parsons, church street. Services were held at St. John's church. Rev. Father Fleming officiated. After the services the remains were taken to the Catholic cemetery and interred. The pallbearers were: Edward Durkin, Joseph Moore, Andrew White and Thomas Donlin.
